

CAROLINE BUCHANAN TRAINING ON THE GOLD COAST

Thursday 15 July 2010

We were lucky enough to catch up with Caroline Buchanan today on the Gold Coast. She is in town for a couple of weeks training hard with the Australian BMX team before heading to worlds in South Africa next week. Only recently getting over surgery on her sinuses, and having her tonsils removed,

Caroline had an unfortunate spill at Luke Madill's training track resulting in a broken finger and stitches. This hasn't slowed her down though, and Caroline is confident leading the Australian team towards the 2012 Olympics.

We managed to get some filming done as well as an interview, so stay tuned for a video coming online soon. Caroline is a true inspiration to all young girls, and with her strong enthusiasm and never give up attitude, she is sure to be on top of the BMX world within no time.

Good luck Caroline!
